The Best Clothes Is None Too Good For Your Boy!

He's not too young this minute to be taught the mighty important lesson of correct dress. Clothes are the first and most apparent apparent sign of selfrespect and good breeding. His little playfellows will think more of him and he will have more confidence in himself if attired in clothes from Rosenwald's Without hesitation, we place the reputation of this store squarely behind what we have found to be the world's best in boys' clothing—the best in styling, in tailoring, in wearing capacity. These clothes are not built for namby-pamby boys who never wear things out. They are built for "regular fellows" who play hard and in the excitement of the game don't always remember their clothes. Thus they are reinforced at the points of greatest wear and tear-staunchily stitched strengthened wherever and however the stress and strain demand.
